

Calendar for December 1912 showing days of the week and dates.

The last annual message of President Taft to Congress was read in that body yesterday and will be found in our news columns this morning.

The Chicago Tribune rang the bell when it said: "Mr. Carnegie is reducing to absurd the theory that any single man should be permitted to exercise unlimited dominion over millions of dollars."

Popular Vote for President.

The popular vote for President in the elections of 1912 shows that Wilson polled throughout the country a total of 6,156,748 votes; Roosevelt, 3,928,140, and Taft 3,376,422.

The Socialist vote for Debs amounted to 673,783, with the Socialist count still unfinished in several states.

The prohibition vote for Chafin was 169,644, with some States missing.

In 1908 Bryan's popular vote was 6,393,182 and that of Taft 7,637,676.

The count of the vote in Pennsylvania, practically official is as follows: Roosevelt, Washington party, 347,940; Bull Moose, 60,964; Roosevelt Progressive, 35,122; total, 444,426.

Wilson, 305,619; Taft, 273,305; Debs, 80,915; Chafin, 19,543; Reimer, 706.

Congressional Election Expenses.

The expense account of Willis J. Huntington, the successful candidate for Congress in this district shows receipts of $385 and expenditures of $1,891.71. The receipts consisted of $280 from Samuel McCuen, treasurer of the Washington party, $55 from John M. Reed and $50 from Carl A. Newberg to pay postage on letters and circulars sent to Elk county.

The expenditures may be classified as follows: Oil City postoffice, stamps, $53.17; stenographers, $148.55; rent, $71.67; U. S. Rogers, treasurer Warren county committee, $100; J. V. In New York City it is expected that ten million Red Cross seals will be sold during the month of December. In Buffalo a meeting was held in the Hotel Statler on Monday, December 24, the purpose of the meeting to arouse interest to the extent of selling two million seals. No matter whether the city be large or small the fight against tuberculosis is just as important one place as another. Every life that is sacrificed from tuberculosis is dear to someone. Nobody knows who is next. Buy Red Cross Seals for the money raised helps to support Bon Air Sanatorium.

The first issue of Pennsylvania's automobile license tags for 1913 will be made by the automobile division of the state highway department on December 1, almost two weeks ahead of the time of issue in the past, and it is expected to break all records for the first issue. This license will be sent out as rapidly as possible, owing to the fact that on January 1, days of grace will be abolished. The latter order means that persons failing to display 1913 tags on and after January 1 will be liable to arrest. Heretofore thirty days have been allowed to owners in which to procure licenses, but next year no car can be run on New Year's day without one of the olive green tags.

Kellettville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Spier of Barnes spent Thanksgiving with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Thomadson. A good sized congregation enjoyed the Thanksgiving services at the M. E. church Thursday evening.

Nettie Miller has been suffering with tonsillitis for the past week.

Margaret Lorom and Pearl Detar were down from Warren and spent Thanksgiving vacation with their parents. They were accompanied by three lady friends who came down to spend vacation with them. Harold Fitzgerald was also home for the vacation.

The Ladies Aid will give an oyster supper in the hall Dec. 11. All are invited to attend and help out on the fund for papering the M. E. church.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church gave a delightful evening to over one hundred guests who met in the hall to spend a social hour with them on Tuesday.

Marjorie Nash, Amy Kinch, Russell Detar, James Flynn and Mrs. Smallenberger each delightfully entertained with piano solos. Mrs. C. P. Cloak and Bessie Porter gave two beautiful piano duets. The Mandolin Club played four numbers which were greatly appreciated. They were assisted by a representative of the Warren Evening Times, who was in town and very ably supported them with the violin. He also gave four selections on the violin in which he was assisted in two by Nettie Detar at the piano, and by James Flynn with the other two. Nettie Detar sang a beautiful selection, assisted by Julia Lohmeyer on the piano and the violinist.

Shadow pantomimes given by the committee lent spice to the evening's entertainment, giving fun for the young folks. A treat of home-made candy and popcorn was enjoyed by all before departing for home. All expressed themselves as well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

The Galbraith Brothers of Brookville will be in town and give an entertainment on Thursday evening, Dec. 5. A delightful evening is promised and all should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear these accomplished entertainers.

Hazel Copeland spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Tionesta.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Murphy spent Thanksgiving with the former's parents at Minster.

Ethel Rich spent Sunday with friends at Nebraska.

Mrs. E. M. Porter and daughter Bessie are up from Tionesta with friends in town for several weeks.

The boys were supported by a large and enthusiastic crowd of rooters when they met the Pleasantville boys in their basketball game Thursday evening, but were defeated by the visitors, 26-16.

Mrs. Chester Pupa, who spent the summer at Frewsburg, N. Y., is here to spend some time with her son, Charles Pupa. She was accompanied home by her grandson, Burt Littlefield, who will spend a week with his uncle.

Mrs. Dora Detar went to Jamestown the first of the week.

A young man from Rimersburg was a visitor at the parsonage while here on a hunting vacation last week.

F. V. Hendrickson spent the week hunting for large game but did not find any.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Johnson go to Harrison Valley this week to spend the Christmas holidays with their son.

The popular vote for president, not yet entirely official, foots up as follows: Wilson, 6,156,748; Roosevelt, 3,928,140; Taft, 3,386,422; Debs, 673,783; Chafin, 169,644. The Debs and Chafin vote is still unreported in several states. It will be seen that Wilson falls far short of a majority over all. Roosevelt's lead over Taft is at least in part fictitious, electors for the regular Republican nominee being denied any place on the ballot in California and South Dakota.

Shortly before 8 o'clock Wednesday evening P. R. R. train No. 34, south bound, Engine man Savage and Conductor Dickinson, struck a horse and wagon at the Scott crossing on the P. & E. division, one mile east of Irvinet and west of Warren. As soon as the train could be stopped the crew and a number of passengers went back to the scene of the accident and found the body of F. R. Lindberg, a butcher, whose home was in Youngsville, Pa. He had been instantly killed. His skull was fractured and one leg and arm had been ground off. He had driven on the grade crossing ahead of the train and, being deaf, had not noted its approach or engine signals. The horse, which he had been driving to a light spring wagon, was carried on the pilot of the engine several yards. The story circulated that Lindberg had been robbed and murdered and his horse tied on the railroad track is denied by Coroner George DeForest, of Warren, who states that his money, checks and a list of the persons to whom he had sold meat were found in the pockets of his clothes. After the accident several quarters of beef and some blankets were found strewn about the scene. These were stolen by unknown parties.

Another case of "resting on the muzzle of the gun" happened last Saturday to Seymour Millard, an oil well worker living in Cherrytree township, Venango county. He was going through a field carrying a double-barrel shot gun. He stopped and rested the butt of the gun on the ground and his left hand was partially over the muzzle. The shock of setting it down put the gun off and the charge tore off the thumb at the ball, the ends of the fingers and part of the shot went into his face, but fortunately missed the eyes. This "resting on the muzzle of the gun" recklessness will soon be as common as "didn't know it was loaded" foolhardiness.

The high water mark of $32,146,978.23 for state revenue in a fiscal year, which was made last year, was broken when the fiscal year ended at noon last Saturday. The total for the year exceeded that for 1911 by $200,600.

His Stomach Troubles Over.

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Baker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers. Adv.

Worry Causes Suicide.

James Donald McCalmont, aged 42 years, one of the best-known residents of Franklin, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head, probably about 11:20 o'clock Friday night, at his home, 1519 Liberty street. The suicide was not discovered until Mrs. McCalmont, the wife, returned home from the Nursery Club party at 1:10 o'clock in the morning, whither she had gone early in the evening expecting her husband to come later as he had planned to do.

There appears to be no question that worry over financial matters caused Mr. McCalmont to take his life. He labored under the belief that the suit which his brother, David B. McCalmont, and two sisters had instituted against him to cause his removal as one of the executors of their father's estate, would leave him and his family penniless and he occasionally talked of suicide. Dr. E. V. Thompson testified at the inquest that Mr. McCalmont tried twice on Thursday to kill himself by taking gas, only later to brighten up and be himself again. There is plenty of evidence that Mr. McCalmont had been suffering from a disordered mind for some time past.
